Directed and Choreographed by the legendary Baayork Lee

Palm Desert, CA – From the pen of legendary composer Marvin Hamlisch, the Tony Award and Pulitzer Prize-winning singular sensation, A Chorus Line, is dancing into Palm Desert at the McCallum Theatre for five performances, Friday, January 26, through Sunday, January 28. The January 26 performance is presented through the generosity of Barbara Arnstein.

The iconic score features such classics as "What I Did for Love," "One," "I Hope I Get It" and more! With its celebration and true-to-life depiction of performers and their struggle to achieve greatness on the Broadway stage, A Chorus Line has earned unanimous praise as one of the true masterpieces of live theater.

A director, actress, author and choreographer, Lee played Connie Wong in the original 1975 production of A Chorus Line, and has gone on to direct or choreograph more than 35 international productions of the show, including the most recent Broadway revival in 2006. She was also the recipient of the 2017 Isabelle Stevenson Tony Award for her contributions to theater education programs around the world.
