Join Michael Feinstein as he celebrates Valentine's Day with Isn't It Romantic, featuring music of the Great American songbook. From recordings that have earned him five Grammy Award nominations to his Emmy nominated PBS-TV specials, his acclaimed NPR series and concerts spanning the globe - in addition to his appearances at iconic venues such as The White House, Buckingham Palace, Hollywood Bowl, Carnegie Hall and Sydney Opera House - his work as an educator and archivist define Feinstein as one of the most important musical forces of our time. Hear songs made famous by Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr, Dean Martin, Judy Garland, Peggy Lee and more!

A childhood in East Africa gave Emmy Award-winning wildlife filmmaker Bob Poole a fierce curiosity about the natural world as well as an adventurous spirit. For a six-part PBS/Nat Geo International series, Bob drew on that experience to document the rebirth of a lost Eden: Mozambique's Gorongosa National Park, a jewel of Africa's parks system until civil war almost destroyed it. There, he joined forces with rangers and scientists (including his sister, renowned elephant researcher Joyce Poole), on perhaps the biggest conservation project on the planet – and learned that the wild places we've broken can be put back together.
